New England Lighthouses and the People Who Kept Them Thursday, November 15, 7:00 PM @ Madbury Town Hall

Join New Hampshire Humanities presenter Jeremy D'Entremont, author and official historian of the American Lighthouse Foundation, and learn about the rich human history of lighthouse keepers and their families. This program is sponsored by NH Humanities, the Friends of the Madbury Library, and hosted by the Madbury Community Club.

Preschool Story Times

Mondays & Thursdays at 10:30

Every session includes stories, a craft, plus there is often a felt-board activity.

November 5 & 8 ~ Those busy squirrels! This week we'll read Those Darn Squirrels! and The Busy Little Squirrel.

November 12 & 15 ~ We're reading about libraries and books this week, including a story about The Not So Quiet Library.

November 19 ~ It's Thanksgiving week! We will read about turkeys and make a turkey craft. There will be no story time on Thursday, November 22—Happy Thanksgiving!

November 26 & 29 ~ We're going on a bear hunt this week! We'll read Bear Snores On and Sleep, Big Bear, Sleep.

CLIMB (Children Learning, Inventing, Making, Building)!

Wednesdays, October 31-December 12

This STEM program is open to six third and fourth grade students at Moharimet Elementary School, who will come directly from school to the library, accompanied by Children's Librarian Kayla Morin. (Sorry, this program is fully enrolled. Call 743-1400 to be added to our waitlist for January.)

Read with Digby ~ Monday, November 12, 3:00-5:00:

Digby is a friendly, lovable Cavalier King Charles spaniel who loves to have children read to him. Digby and his owner Liz Marcotte will be with us the one Monday each month. Please call or stop in to sign up for a 20-minute time slot.
