Thank You to the ORCR!

During the 2018 Oyster River Community Read, artist Richard Haynes held a six-week workshop series called Culture Keepers: Culture Makers. One of murals created during this workshop was given to MPL for use in our new library building. In the mural, a diverse group of children within a snow globe huddle together reading books. It is currently in our downstairs meeting space (locked most of the time) but we look forward to publicly displaying it soon
